

A collection of wedding bouquets and boutonnieres is arranged on a dark chalkboard background. At the top center, there is a bouquet of purple and pink flowers. To the right, a bouquet of pink roses is wrapped in bright pink ribbon. On the left, a bouquet of white and purple flowers is wrapped in white ribbon. At the bottom, three individual boutonnieres are displayed: one with green flowers and pink berries, one with a white rose and purple flowers, and one with a single purple orchid.
